

International Conference:
Deportation and the Development of Citizenship

Oxford Department of International Development 3 Mansfield Road, Oxford, OX1 3TB

Day One – 11 December 2009

8.45-9.15	Conference registration and refreshments	Main Hall
9:30- 10:00	Welcome by Matthew Gibney, University of Oxford and Bridget Anderson, University of Oxford	Seminar Room 3
10:00 - 11:30	Thematic sessions
	Panel 1 – Aspects of immigration law Chair: Matthew Gibney
	Asha Kaushal, University of British Columbia and Catherine Dauvergne, University of British Columbia - “Refugee “Exclusions in Canada: a Ten Year Review”
	Galina Cornelisse, Utrecht University - “Economics and Governance Utrecht University, Deportation and Modern Constitutionalism’s blindspots”	Seminar Room 3
	Ariadna Ripoll Servent, University of Sussex - “The European Parliament and the returns directive: the end of radical contestation, the start of consensual constraints?”
	Jennifer Simmelink, University of Minnesota - “Temporary Citizens: United States Immigration Law and Liberians”
	Panel 2 - Detention and deportability Chair: Nando Sigona
	Carolina Kobelinsky, Ecole des Hautes Etudes en Sciences Sociales - “Between hospitality and hostility: the role of reception centers for asylum seekers in French deportation policy”	Seminar Room 1
	Stefan Le Courant, Paris Ouest Nanterre - “Living under the threat of deportation: undocumented aliens and the experience of detention”
	Arjen Leerkes, Erasmus University and Dennis Broeders, Erasmus University, “Deportable migrants in Aliens Custody”
11:30-12:00	Break	Main Hall

12:00-1:30 Thematic sessions

Panel 3 - Deportation in historical context

Chair: Desmond King

Benjamin Gray, University of Oxford – “Exile, ostracism and disenfranchisement in Ancient Greek City-states as forerunners of modern deportation: expulsion as a factor in the creation, reinforcement and undermining of political community”

Seminar Room 3

Deirdre M. Moloney, George Mason University - “Muslims and U.S. Deportation and Exclusion Policies, the 1910 Polygamy Controversy”

Annemarie Sammartino, Oberlin College – “Deportations, Quarantines, and other Fantasies of Foreigner Control in the Weimar Republic”

Panel 4 – Resisting deportation – part I

Chair: Nicholas Van Hear

Catherine Dauvergne, University of British Columbia, Antje Ellermann, University of British Columbia and Matthew Gravelle, University of British Columbia - “Zones of Resistance: Studying Migration Governance from the Bottom Up”

Seminar Room 1

Nicolas Fischer, Ecole des Hautes Etudes en Sciences Sociales - “Negotiating Deportations; an ethnography of the legal challenge of deportation orders in a French Immigration Detention Centre”

Clotilde Giner, Warwick University – “Let them grow up here!” Grassroots mobilisations against child deportations in France and Britain”

Panel 5 – Experiences on the ground

Chair: Gil Loescher

Sarah Latimer, Senior Caseworker and LSC Contact Manager – “Afro-Asian Advisory Service Deportation - Cui bono?”

Darshan Vingneswaran, Forced Migration Studies Programme and Rebecca Sutton, University of Toronto - “A Suspended Sentence: Administrative Breakdown in South Africa’s Deportation System”

Seminar Room 2

Ariel Safdie, University of Sussex - “Living in Fear: citizenship from the perspective of undocumented immigrants in the southern United States”

Frances Webber, Immigration and human rights barrister, Liz Fekete, Institute of Race Relations – “Foreign nationals, enemy penology and the criminal justice system”

1:30-2:45

Lunch at the University Club

2:45-4:15 Thematic sessions

Panel 6 – Deporting criminals, deporting citizens

Chair: Michael Keith

Yasmine Bouagga, Ecole des Hautes Etudes en Sciences Sociales -
“Deportation for convicted offenders in France”

María-Teresa Gil-Bazo, Newcastle University - “The forced removal of one’s own nationals. Law and practice of EU Member States”

Matthew Gibney, University of Oxford – “Deporting the Disloyal? The Deprivation of Citizenship in the UK since 2001”

Seminar Room 3

Panel 7 – After deportation – part I

Chair: Elena Fiddian-Qasmiyeh

Daniel Kanstroom, Boston College - “Passed Beyond our Aid:
Deportation Law and the Unplanned American Diaspora”

Matt Merefield, Immigration Advisory Service, Moses Okello, Refugee Law
Project, Chris Dolan, Refugee Law Project, and Liza Schuster, City University - “The Impact of Deportation: Some Reflections on Current Practices”

Seminar Room 1

Clara Lecadet, Ecole des Hautes Etudes en Sciences Sociales - “From the migrants civil destitution to their self-organisation into transitory national communities: the remains of citizenship in post-deportation experiences in Northern Mali”

Susan Banki, Griffith University – “The Economic, Social and State-Punitive Consequences of Deportation: identifying and classifying current research”

7:45

Dinner at Oriel College
With remarks by Guy S. Goodwin-Gill, University of Oxford

Day Two – 12 December 2009

9:30-11:00 Thematic sessions

Panel 8 - Resisting deportation - Part II

Chair: James Simeon

Jane Freedman, Centre de Recherches Politiques de la Sorbonne - "The Reseau Education Sans Frontiers: reframing the campaign against deportation of migrants?"

JoAnn McGregor, University College London - "Contestations and consequences of deportability in Britain: the Zimbabwean detainees hunger strike of 2005 revisited"

Seminar Room 3

Michela Sempredon, University of Milan Bicocca - "It is for the government to control and manage undocumented!: phone center-owners in face of 'residual' deportation practices in Italy"

Panel 9 – After deportation – Part II

Chair: Emanuela Paoletti

Stephan Dunnwald, Lisbon Universitarian Institute – "The tough way back: failed migrants in Mali"

Jacqueline Hagan, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, David Leal, University of Texas at Austin and Nestor Rodriguez, University of Texas at Austin - "Deporting Social Capital: the deportation of Salvadoran immigrants from the United States"

Seminar Room 1

Tania Mancheno, University of Hamburg - "Hannah Arendt on the "stateless"-condition"

11:00-11:30

Break

Main Hall

Expert panel - Deportation in Policy and Practice

Chair: Bridget Anderson

Stuart Crosthwaite, Asylum Action Group, John Grayson, Sheffield Hallam University - "What are the politics of anti-deportation campaigning? Case studies from Sheffield"

11:30-1:00

Bill MacKeith, National Coalition of Anti Deportation Campaigns (NCADC), Campaign to Close Campsfield (CCC), Coalition Against Bullingdon and Barbed Wire Britain (BWB) - "A campaigner's view?"

Seminar Room 3

Sally Weston, Home Office, "What's in a name - removal, deportation, expulsion - recent changes in UK law"

Jason Matthews, International Organisation for Migration - "Assisted Voluntary Return – an alternative to forced removal for asylum seekers and non-EU illegal migrants in the UK"

1:00-1:30

Concluding remarks by Robin Cohen, University of Oxford

Seminar Room 3

1:30-2:30

Lunch

Main Hall