

RSC Dissemination Workshop
Perceptions and Aspirations: Syrian Humanitarian Disaster
9 December 2015

09:30 Coffee and Registration

10:15 Welcome

10:30 Panel 1

Disparity in perceptions and aspirations in Turkey, Lebanon and Jordan
Dawn Chatty, Refugee Studies Centre

Jordanian hosts and Syrian refugees: comparing perceptions of social conflict and cohesion in three host communities
Maira Seeley, Generations for Peace

Together Apart: Syrian/Turkish Relations in the Eastern Mediterranean
Eduardo Chemin, Çağ Üniversitesi, Turkey

'Either we'll survive the sea or we'll die:' Syrian refugees in Lesbos, Greece
Maria Kastrinou, Brunel University

Syrian Refugee Crisis in Lebanon: Vulnerability and Resilience in a Fragile State
Filippo Dionigi, LSE

12:30 Lunch

Poster Presentations

Evidence Based Health Care for Refugees from Syria
Adam Coutts

Education for Refugees in Lebanon
Hani Jesri

Camps or no Camps: Housing and Sheltering Solutions for/by Syrian Refugees in Lebanon

Faten Kikano

Title TBC, Roula Nasrallah

13:30

Panel II

Lebanon: looking ahead in times of crisis - taking stock of the present to urgently build sustainable options for the future

Sally Abi Khalil, Oxfam's Policy Advisor, Lebanon

Valentina Bacchin, Lebanon Protection Coordinator, Oxfam

Education – what is it good for?...absolutely nothing! OR absolutely everything! Formal and informal education in Syria 1980-2010 and the prospects for a future more inclusive and critical education

Annika Rabo, Stockholm University

All Politics is Local? Perceptions of the Impact of Syrian Refugees on Local Services in Northern Jordan

Doris Carrion, Chatham House

Regional Overview of Perceptions by Practitioners in Lebanon and Jordan

Shaden Khallaf, UNHCR Regional Office, Amman

15:30

Tea Break

16:00

Conclusions

Shaden Khallaf, UNHCR Regional Office, Amman

Dawn Chatty, Refugee Studies Centre

