

Campion Hall and the Refugee Studies Centre present

Rupture and Reconciliation in Contexts of Displacement

An online seminar series, every Wednesday 3:00pm - 4:30pm from 26 January - 9 March

Campion Hall and the Refugee Studies Centre at Oxford present an online seminar series discussing the possibilities for and challenges to 'reconciliation' in contexts of displacement. It brings together academics and practitioners working in diverse contexts and according to different traditions to exchange insights and engage critically with the conceptual and practical dimensions of reconciliation.

WED 26 JAN 3:00pm

Social Cohesion as a Humanitarian Objective?

WED 16 FEB 3:00pm

Learning in Segregation as Syrian Refugee Children in Jordan

WED 2 FEB 3:00pm

Journeys towards Reconciliation: the JRS Experience

WED 23 FEB 3:00pm

Exposure to Violence and the Prospects for Reconciliation: Evidence from Syria and Iraq

WED 9 FEB 3:00pm

"They treat us as if we are of no importance:" Experiences of displacement, (in)justice and reconciliation across disaster, epidemic and war in Sierra Leone

WED 2 MAR 3:00pm

Title TBC

WED 9 MAR 3:00pm

Title TBC

Convened by Cory Rodgers (Oxford), Elias Lopez (Comillas Pontifical University)

REGISTER HERE: www.campion.ox.ac.uk/events

CAMPION HALL
UNIVERSITY OF OXFORD

REFUGEE
STUDIES
CENTRE