International Schools in Forced Migration

Online School dates: 27-31 March 2023 and 10-14 July 2023

Summer School dates: 3-8 July 2023

In response to growing demand, and to ensure that our widely acclaimed teaching is as accessible as possible, the Refugee Studies Centre's International School in Forced Migration will be held online twice in March and in July this year, and also once in person in Oxford in July.

The Refugee Studies Centre always sets the highest academic and pedagogic standards in its research and teaching. Our International Schools offer a programme of study on forced migration that is theoretically rigorous, empirically informed, and inclusive.

All our participants, whether at the Online School or the in-person Summer School, will be provided with a wealth of learning materials to engage with before their School starts, including pre-recorded lectures, exercises, and readings. During each School, participants will attend and participate in seminars, discussions, and debates. The School's demanding academic content will be complemented by a range of social and networking opportunities.

Course tutors

As always, the International Schools will be anchored by their academic tutors.
